

The Broughton Trust's Equal Opportunities Statement:

"As an organisation we acknowledge that discrimination exists in our society. We are strongly opposed to all forms of unlawful or unfair discrimination. We aim to achieve equality of opportunity and treatment in all aspects of our activities; as employer, service provider and membership organisation, and we will actively work to promote the inclusion of all groups.

We will regularly monitor & review our activities to improve policies & procedures. We will take seriously and deal with all complaints of discrimination received and will implement effective grievance & disciplinary procedures."

- ◆ The Broughton Trust is a community-based group working for the future of Broughton
- ◆ We are an expanding organisation, providing a range of events, courses and training opportunities, activities in Broughton, and we provide support for local community groups
- ◆ The Broughton and Blackfriars Play Development Project is part of the Broughton Trust
- ◆ People living or working in Broughton can apply to become Members of the Trust
- ◆ The Broughton Trust is now a Registered Charity, with a committee elected by Members

The aim of the Broughton Trust in the rules is:

"to promote regeneration in areas of social & economic deprivation and in particular in the Broughton area of Salford."

But what does the Broughton Trust do?

- ❖ The Broughton Trust works with community groups, helping them plan and develop their activities, & to apply for funding to do what they want to do
- ❖ We offer training, events and activities - based on what people tell us they want, for interest or to help people into employment
- ❖ We run the Broughton & Blackfriars Play Development Project
- ❖ We can help community enterprises with their first steps, & offer practical help such as payroll calculation, or help with accounts
- ❖ We are still hoping to gain a building to house our activities and those of other groups and organisations in Broughton
- ❖ ....and lots of other things too.....

Who can apply for membership?

- anyone who lives or works in Broughton and supports the Aims & Policies of The Broughton Trust.
- groups or organisations operating in the area (where there must be a named representative on behalf of the organisation / group).
- Membership applications are referred to the Committee for decision.
- N.B. For membership purposes, the area known as Broughton is: Broughton Ward plus Blackfriars Ward as far as the River Irwell.
  - Members elect the Management Committee, & are on our mailing list to get early information about courses, events and activities
